Whether you are a new Chemical Hygiene Officer or an “old” one, you will find something to put to real use in this fast-paced presentation. This one-day seminar was developed by RJG Associates as the prep course for the NRCC Chemical Hygiene Officer Certification Exam. It covers the lab standard, other lab regulations, the role of the CHO, getting others involved, developing your chemical hygiene plan, lab hazards, and resources. The seminar will be held on Friday, July 24, 2009 at the hotel. The fee for this all day workshop is just $395. [LSI reserves the right to substitute another qualified instructor in place of Dr. Kaufman if necessary.]
