and its' various Pard'ners invite NAOSMM attendees and their families to don their favorite jeans and come experience an "Old West" evening at the Buckhorn Saloon & Museum (this is not your normal, stuffy museum)

Wildlife and the Wild West Night!

Wednesday, July 23, 2008 - 7 to 11 pm.

"So get a wiggle on a 'hog killin' time!" (hurry for a real good time)

The evening will include:

- FREE access to the Buckhorn Museum throughout the event
- Experienced representative of museum will be available to discuss various exhibits, the history of Texas and answer any questions from guests
- Curio Store ("oddest store in the world") open to purchase souvenirs
- Buffet in the Toepperwein Room
- Unlimited soda & iced tea
- Guests provided with complimentary tickets for 2 free drinks from the bar at registration (after 2 drinks it's a cash bar)

This is where it all started...where Teddy Roosevelt recruited Rough Riders and Pancho Villa is rumored to have planned the Mexican Revolution. Many of the original furnishings still grace today's Buckhorn Saloon, including the back bar which was hand-crafted of marble and cherry wood. The Buckhorn has amassed more than 1200 trophy mounts, representing over 520 species with a number of record-holding critters!

Buckhorn Saloon & Museum is in the heart of downtown, within easy walking distance (or River Taxi) from hotel, only 50 feet from the River Walk & two blocks from the Alamo.
